

Who is Like the Lord

By John Fianza and Norman Holmes

VERSE 1:

Who is like the Lord, Who reigns from heaven above
Perfect in power, holiness, and love
Who is like our God, who forged the galaxies
Who stretched out the heavens & filled the earth & seas
Who can fathom His love, or know His master plan?
Eternal, yet mortal: God and also man
There is no one like You, full of goodness and grace
When all our sin and shame You offer to erase

CHORUS:

We worship You, we worship You
You are faithful and true in everything You do
We worship You, we worship You
In all that we do, we seek to worship You, to worship You

VERSE 2:

There is no one like You, Who reigns from heaven above
Perfect in power, holiness, and love
There is no one like You, who forged the galaxies
You stretched out the heavens and filled the earth and seas
Who can fathom Your love, or know Your master plan?
Eternal, yet mortal: God and also man
There is no one like You, full of goodness and grace
When all our sin and shame You offer to erase

BRIDGE:

For of You, and through You, and to You are all things
To whom be glory forever!
To the One who Was, and Is, and Is To Come
To whom be glory forever!
In the wisdom of Your plan You died the death of sinful man
For Your glory and honor forever and ever, Amen!
